The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday May 23, to Tuesday May 26, 1789.

Whitehall, May 26.

THE following Addreſſes having been delivered to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Preſident, Vice-Preſidents, Treaſurer and Guardians of the Aſylum for Female Orphans, beg Leave to expreſs our unfeigned Joy at your Majeſty's happy Recovery.

As our benevolent Inſtitution has felt within it's peaceful Walls all the painful Senſations which afflicted your loyal Subjects, ſo it now exults in the general Joy, and entreats that it's Congratulations may be added to thoſe of your Majeſty's faithful People, and it's Prayers united with theirs for a Continuance of the invaluable Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's Reign.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sire!

THE Freeholders and Inhabitants, Electors of your Majeſty's ancient and loyal Borough of Gatton, Partakers of that univerſal Joy which has reſounded from Shore to Shore throughout your Majeſty's Dominions, beg Permiſſion to approach your Throne with unfeigned Expreſſions of their dutiful and affectionate Attachment to your Royal Perſon from their high Senſe of and heartfelt Gratitude for the ineſtimable Bleſſings of Civil and Religious Liberty enjoyed under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government.

With our humble and thankful Acknowledgments to the King of Kings, who, amidſt His Viſitation, hath remembered Mercy, and reſtored to an afflicted People their King, their Father and their Friend, our Prayers and Supplications ſhall not be wanting, that the Meaſure of Happineſs, ſo graciouſly diſpenſed to your Majeſty's Subjects, may be meeted with tenfold Increaſe into your Majeſty's Boſom, that of your Royal Family, and of yonr whole Houſe.

Signed by Order,

J. Graham, Chairman.

[Delivered by John Graham, Eſq; Chairman.]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Preſident, Viſitor and Members of the Faculty of Phyſicians and Surgeons of Glaſgow, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's Recovery.

The Happineſs we have enjoyed during your Reign, and your ſucceſsful Endeavours to promote every Branch of uſeful Knowledge, fill us with Gratitude to your Majeſty, and with Thankfulneſs to Almighty God for having reſtored Health to your Majeſty, and the beſt of Princes to His loyal Subjects.

It is our fervent and conſtant Prayer, that you may long continue to reign over theſe Kingdoms the Father of your People, and to be an Example to the Princes of Europe, as the Friend of Science and Pattern of Virtue.

Given under our Common Seal, and ſigned by our Appointment by the Præſes and Viſitor.

Robert Clegborn, Præſes.

William Hamilton, Viſitor.

Glaſgow, May 20, 1789.

[Delivered by the Lord Advocate of Scotland.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, loyal and affectionate Subjects, the working Silk Weavers of Spitalfields and its Environs, humbly beg Leave to addreſs your Majeſty on the recent Interpoſition of Divine Providence, in mercifully reſtoring your Majeſty from the late heavy Affliction with which it pleaſed the Omnipotent to afflict us, in the Perſon of your Majeſty.

We therefore, with Hearts ever flowing with Gratitude, unite our cordial Thankſgiving that we are again bleſſed bleſſed with the perſonal Exerciſe of your Majeſty's parental and wiſe Authority over us; we are under peculiar Obligations to expreſs our Joy and Happineſs in ſuch an Event, from a Conſideration, not only of the many Privileges we enjoy in common with our Fellow-Subjects, but for the ſingular Marks of your Majeſty's Regard for the Welfare of our Trade, in graciouſly indulging us with Laws for its Regulations.

We humbly hope your Majeſty will deign to accept our feeble Attempts to expreſs our Loyalty and Affection to the beſt of Kings, under whoſe mild and auſpicious Reign we enjoy ſo many Civil and Religious Privileges, and have experienced your Readineſs on all Occaſions to hear and redreſs every Grievance that has been preſented to you, with a View for the Encouragement of the Wear of the Silk Manufacture; we therefore humbly pray the ſame benign Regard may be continued to us, and that your Majeſty's Life may belong, and your Reign proſperous over a grateful and happy People; and that when the Hand of Time ſhall have ſtretched its utmoſt Bounds in extending your valuable Life, you may change an earthly for an heavenly Crown of immortal Glory and Honor.

Signed on Behalf of a Body of more than Fifteen Thouſand.

The following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Aileſbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold have been by him preſented to the Queen: Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Preſident, Vice-Preſidents, Treaſurer and Guardians of the Aſylum for Female Orphans, now aſſembled to celebrate the natal Day of our beloved Queen and Patroneſs, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty at this Seaſon of general Joy and Happineſs with our Congratulations on the Reſtoration of the Health of our moſt Gracious Sovereign.

The Orphans, protected by your Majeſty's moſt gracious Countenance, and aſſiſted by your Munificence, have been taught to ſhare in the national Joy. They have raiſed their innocent and grateful Voices in Praiſe and Thankſgiving to that Divine Goodneſs, which has enhanced to your Majeſty, your Family and People, the Bleſſings of this Day, by the Recovery of the beſt of Kings.

May your Majeſty long enjoy the Effects of ſo felicitous an Event in the Society of your beloved Conſort: May the fond and dutiful Attention of your amiable Offspring, and the reſpectful Attachment of an admiring Nation, continue through many returning Years, ſtill adding to that Happineſs which a Life of Virtue and Goodneſs do ſo truly deſerve.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

MADAM,

AMIDST the numerous Offerings that flow from Joy and Affection, the Freeholders and Inhabitants, Electors of the ancient and loyal Borough of Gatton, beg Leave to preſent their ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty on the happy Reſtoration of the King's Health. In our humble Acknowledgments of the all-wiſe and gracious Diſpenſations of Providence, we are induced to look up with Admiration to your Majeſty's Virtues, as giving Efficacy to the Prayers and Supplications of an afflicted People at the Throne of Mercy.

May thoſe exalted Virtues, the brighteſt Ornaments of the Britiſh Diadem, be faithfully recorded in the Hearts of your Majeſty's Subjects, ever held forth as an Example, and live by Imitation through ſucceeding Ages.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Queen,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Working Silk Weavers of Spitalfields and its Environs, humbly beg Leave to addreſs your Majeſty on the recent Interpoſition of Divine Providence in reſtoring to you and the Nation at large an affectionate and auguſt Sovereign, who reigns in the Hearts and Affection of a loyal and joyful People.

We ſhould be wanting in that reverential Regard we owe to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon were we not to unite with our Fellow-Subjects in cordially congratulating you on the happy Event; an Event productive of the moſt important and bleſſed Conſequences, in having already expelled that ſorrowful Gloom which hung on every Countenance, and delivered your Majeſty from thoſe diſtreſſing and afflicting Senſations with which your tender and ſympathetic Feelings muſt have been exerciſed.

We are conſtrained humbly to implore your Majeſty's Acceptance of our ſincere though feeble Expreſſions of affectionate Attachment to your Majeſty, whoſe Virtues are ſo many and ſo rare that all Mankind muſt neceſſarily do the ſame; yet none are under ſuch pleaſing Obligations as we, who, conſidered in a political View, enjoy ſuch ſalutary Laws for the Protection of our Rights and Liberties in a Commercial View, as having the Honor and Happineſs of ſeeing our Trade patroniſed and encouraged by your Majeſty's Royal Example, which, we doubt not, will have an happy Influence over your whole auguſt Family and Court. May the Divine Protection ever guard your Majeſty from every Affliction both of Body and Mind, that your Majeſty may long reign over a grateful and free People, is the fervent Wiſh of a Body of more than Fifteen Thouſand, whom we repreſent.

The following Addreſs having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of of State for the Home Department, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Dioceses of Cork and Ross.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the Dioceses of Cork and Ross, beg Leave to present our most unfeigned Assurances, that no Community in your Majesty's Dominions more truly partakes of the general Joy diffused throughout the Empire than we who are now assembled to express our Congratulations.

Sensible as we are of the various Blessings generally derived to us from your Majesty's mild and equal Government, we have a further Tribute to pay for the especial Attention which our Established Church has uniformly experienced from your paternal Care: Wherefore, amidst the Fears and Sorrows which pervaded your Kingdoms, we were filled with Consternation and Dismay lest it should have pleased the Almighty to have withdrawn that Protection which, in His awful Visitation, he had for a Time suspended. With Hearts full of Gratitude and Joy for our signal Deliverance, we offer up our Petitions to the Throne of Mercy for a Continuance of that gracious Dispensation which has restored your Majesty to the Prayers of an afflicted People, and humbly hope, that under whatever Difficulties we may labour, the Authority of the Laws, the Encouragement of your Royal Example, and the Blessing of Providence, will give Effect to our most zealous Endeavours to promote Peace, Virtue and true Religion among those commited to our Care.

Cork, April 30, 1789.

The following Address having been transmitted by his Excellency the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household, has by him been presented to Her Majesty: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Dioceses of Cork and Ross.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Bishop and Clergy of the Dioceses of Cork and Ross, in testifying the Joy we feel upon our most Gracious Sovereign's Restoration to Health, cannot omit to beg your Majesty's Acceptance of our warmest Congratulations upon that signal Event.

Dismayed as we were on every Side with Grief and Apprehension, it was an Addition to our Sorrow to observe that a peculiar Weight of Affliction distinguished your Majesty's Sufferings; Sufferings which, though mitigated by the tried Affection and Confidence of a loyal and devoted People, could be sustained alone by the most established Habits of Piety and Resignation. Although far removed from your Majesty's Presence, we are not Strangers to the Virtues which adorn your Throne, and are thankful to the Almighty for having placed in an exalted View such a Pattern of Excellence as diffuses Light and Emulation in the moral and religious World.

Cork, April 30, 1789.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 23, 1789.

Notice is hereby given, that there will be a Drawing Room at St. James's on Thursday the 4th of June next, which will be the Anniversary of His Majesty's Birth-Day.

Berlin, May 9.

His Prussian Majesty having removed Yesterday from Potzdam to Charlottenburgh, inspected the Infantry of this Garrison early this Morning; and Tomorrow his Majesty will inspect the Cavalry, after which he will return to Sans-Souci, to continue the Military Exercises of the Season. The general Reviews are fixed every where as usual.

Admiralty-Office, May 14, 1789.

HIS late Majesty having been graciously pleased, by His Warrant under His Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th Day of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy; These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth; as also with the Clerks of the Checque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places abovementioned, may apply, by Letter, to Mr. Thomas Kite, at the Admiralty-Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity, intending to distribute to the Widows of Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August, 1782, as well as to the Widows of those Officers who died since that Time, whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, such Monies as may be due to them on the 31st of May instant; This is to give Notice, that any Widows, who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do so as soon as possible; and that all such Widows, whose Claims have been already allowed, may send or bring to this Office, as soon as possible, the Affidavits required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon the Pension or Bounty.

East India-House, May, 20, 1789.
